

Hello from Colombia,

If you are a grandparent or know someone who is, you know the joy of seeing the continuation of the family heritage. Now I'm not a grandmother or even a mother in the physical sense, but I've had the joy of leading a lot of people to Jesus. What a pleasure it is to see these spiritual children bringing others to Christ. Right now several of the people I am teaching in personal sessions are also teaching others. Yesterday a lady asked me for permission to teach a friend! Of course she doesn't need my permission, only the direction of the Lord. Some people are teaching just one person, and others have several under their care.

Sandra, who is recovering from cancer treatments, has begun a Bible study in her home, and is thinking of beginning another. She is also teaching a class of children. She realizes that the cancer brought her close to the Lord. Before, her priority was earning money and getting more things. Now it is serving Christ.

Praise the Lord with me for these people who are putting into practice what they have learned, and are passing the blessings on to others. Some of you have told me about outreach opportunities the Lord is giving you, too. It really doesn't make any difference where we are. People everywhere need the Lord Jesus, and as we introduce them to Him, we have the joy of seeing them grow and begin serving the Lord on their own.

Here is a special prayer request for June. The last two weekends of June I will be speaking at women's conferences. One conference will be near Bucaramanga, and the other in Ocana, where I lived many years ago. Please pray that the Lord will fill me with His wisdom and love for each lady, and that He will prepare their hearts to hear His Word. You might also pray for physical safety. Although roads in Colombia are much safer now than a few years ago, there is still much violence in the land. But the Lord is our shield and defense.

Thank you for your interest and prayers. May the Lord Jesus encourage your heart, and prepare you to pass on your faith to others.
